

I support the ARRL proposal. I feel the requirement for Morse Code Proficiency to upgrade to any level should be eliminated. Morse Code or CW is a mode of operation. We should be testing the proficiency of amateur radio operators in digital modes now if we are going to base a license on mode of operation. Knowledge proficiency about rules, operations and emergency communication is what needs to be tested. Please enact this proposal as rapidly as possible.